

Public Programme

February – April 2016

Linie Line Linea: Contemporary Drawing

Curator's tour

11am Saturday 5 March

Join Volker Adolphs, Head of Exhibitions and Curator of Modern Art at Kunstmuseum Bonn and curator of Linie Line Linea: Contemporary Drawing, for a tour of the exhibition.

Artist's talk

2–4pm Saturday 2 April
Adam Art Gallery

Join visiting German artist Marc Brandenburg for an introduction to his practice in conversation with Stephen Cleland. Brandenburg is currently undertaking a residency in Wellington and his work features in the exhibition Linie Line Linea: Contemporary Drawing.

Roundtable Discussion

Talking Drawing
2–4pm Saturday 16 April
Adam Art Gallery

A moderated discussion with a range of practitioners known for their drawing. This will provide an opportunity to consider the role of drawing in today's world.

Matthew Barney: DRAWING RESTRAINT

Screening

Norman Mailer: The American (2010)
6pm Thursday 10 March
Adam Art Gallery

In preparation for the one-off screening of Matthew Barney and Jonathan Bepler's film, River of Fundament, which is based on Norman Mailer's novel, Ancient Evenings, find out more about the author in this fascinating documentary by Joseph Mantegna.

Discussion

Drawing and Performance
5pm Friday 18 March

Join Adam Art Gallery curator Stephen Cleland and art writer Anthony Byrt for a discussion about Matthew Barney's DRAWING RESTRAINT performance series. This will be an opportunity to deepen knowledge of Barney's work prior to the screening of the film River of Fundament.

Film event

River of Fundament a film by Matthew Barney
and Jonathan Bepler
6pm Saturday 19 March
Embassy Theatre

Book now for Adam Art Gallery's headline event at the New Zealand Festival, the one-off screening of Matthew Barney and Jonathan Bepler's epic 6-hour film, River of Fundament. This is a not-to-be-missed opportunity to see the culmination of seven-years' work that brings together live performance, opera and film. For more information visit the Adam Art Gallery website. Tickets can be purchased at Ticketek.