Become an Adam Art Gallery Supporter

Adam Art Gallery Te Pātaka Toi is New Zealand's leading university art gallery. Renowned for its dramatic architecture and innovative exhibitions, the gallery has been a force on campus and in Wellington, and has gained national and international recognition over its two-decade history.

Many of New Zealand's leading artists have had the opportunity to create major exhibitions here—Billy Apple, Ruth Buchanan, Simon Denny, Jacqueline Fraser, Peter Robinson, Luke Willis Thompson, amongst others. And we have organised thought-provoking group shows that have offered new insights into the history of art and other creative disciplines and have enabled emerging and established artists from New Zealand and overseas to see themselves in new lights.

We take pride in fostering students, many of whom have gone on to careers in the art world, helping them to take their first steps as volunteers and student curators. And we are building one of the great university art collections.

We value all those who have helped us through these years and have taken part in our programmes. We invite you to become a supporter to continue to enjoy what we do and to take pleasure in the knowledge that you are contributing to our success.

For a modest annual subscription you will receive advance notice of all our exhibitions and events, including book launches, tours, and ticketed fundraisers.

Your contribution will assist us to expand minds, create powerful experiences and deepen knowledge. We invite you to help us achieve our crucial mission.
